Correspondence

In the last issue we carried the obituary for Ed Quickel. His wife Gwen wrote last month and her e-mail was so moving, I wanted to share it with everyone, and she graciously agreed that I could do that.

Hello Pat and Charlie,

Thank you for the write up pertaining to Eddie's death. No write up ever seems to be enough to describe his life. He was an extraordinary person and we had almost 57 years together.

I ran into an acquaintance this week that remarked that "Ed was an icon in Brazoria County." That describes him completely. His life was his God, his family, his work and his country. He loved his work as a Registered Professional Land Surveyor in Texas, since 1967. His registration was to end on December 31, 2011. (He passed away Dec. 17, 2011) His Drivers License expired on Nov. 20, 2011.

His children and grand-children adored him all their lives and he was the center of any family gathering.

He looked like a Bonnell and had traits like a Bonnell. He had said if he had known years ago that his biological surname was Bonnell, he would have made a name change just like our son did in the year 2000. Our son, Jerry David Bonnell, said he never felt that his surname was Quickel. But, Eddie's name was on many documents as Quickel (because he had been a RPLS in Texas for too many years to make the change when we learned of his Bonnell lineage in 1987.) It was then that I located Bill Austin from an ad in the Genealogical Helper magazine. Researching his Bonnell lineage was the most exciting genealogical projects we have ever worked on, and it appeared that everything just fell into place after communicating with Bill, and with his assistance, those many years. At that time, none of our research was on the computer...we traveled, nearby in Texas, also, Oklahoma and the state of Virginia. After research at the Texas State Library in Austin, TX, we discovered that Eddie's biological paternal grandfather was buried just a short distance away in San Antonio, TX. Needless to say we were on the Interstate to SA very quickly and located the cemetery and his grandfather's grave site that had a marker. He was buried near other Bonnell relatives.

I would like to suggest that all interested Bonnell/Bunnell researchers check out our research in the newsletter beginning in 1987. Also, i would like to thank Bill Austin for his assistance and his communications in those early days of our Bonnell research. Bill Austin and Clem Bonnell also researched and completed Eddie's lineage back to the immigrant William Bonnell. Eddie was so excited to join the DNA research to prove his Bonnell lineage. That was the "frosting on the cake" when he learned it had been proven that he was a Bonnell.

Eddie's service in WWII was something he did not discuss very much unless we asked him questions and that seemed to "pull out" a lot of memories that he had forgot. He served in both the European and Asian theaters, which is unusual. He received a bronze star for participating at the Battle of the Bulge near Brussels, Belgium. He was in the second wave of infantry to come in at Utah Beach at Normandy. After his service in Europe he was with his battalion that was shipped to the Philippines at Luzon. He "camped" on the Lingayen Gulf near Baguio, searching for Japanese soldiers left behind. Afterwards his battalion was shipped back to the US to LA then on a train to San Antonio to receive his honorable discharge at Fort Sam Houston in 1946. His service was 1942-1946.

Of course this is not this remarkable man's entire life but just a small segment of his 91 years on this earth.

Yes, the Clayton Library is really a good place to do research and we were there many times. I found the first Isaac Bonnell research in Eddie's lineage there and just had "the feeling" that Isaac was the father of "our" William and Jonathon and sure enough that was right. I passed on the info to Bill and he and Clem "ran" with it.

Thank you again!

Gwen Caldwell Quickel

I have put my own database, some of which comes from Claude's database, on Ancestry.com. It goes far beyond my own or Pat's ancestry and contains about 8,800 individuals in it, including about 1900 surnames. For those who may be interested, the name of the Family Tree is allmerge-1. As a result, Diane Steers contacted me requesting information on one of the families in my tree. Ira Everett Bonnell (351792) married Helen Przybylski sometime before 1924 and two sons resulted from that union: Clyde and Merle, both of whom are now deceased. Helen was Diane's great Aunt and she had wondered for years what had happened to Helen. We were not able to piece that together, but thanks to information provided by Elmer Bonnell, Ira's half-brother, I was able to provide Diane with their stories. Her intent is to try and contact Don's widow, if living, to see what information she may be able to provide. Diane's mother believed that Helen may have ended up in a mental hospital in California but I had no info on that; only that she was in California with Ira as late as 1936.

John Grady, grady.john1@gmail.com or 4218 Oxhill Rd., Spring, TX 77388-5752, sent me some material that had been provided to him by Thomas Bonnell of Columbus, IN. Within that material was information that hadn't been in the Newsletter before or wasn't in Claude's database, or both. You will find them scattered throughout the Newsletter and I am only going to preface them with the comment that: "This is from the Thomas Bonnell material provided by John Grady."

(2) This is from the Thomas Bonnell material provided by John Grady. This is the lineage for Thomas Bonnell, a descendant of the Kentucky clan for which we are trying to locate the link back to William, the immigrant. The Bettie Ganno connection is alleged, but unproven. It is also suspected, but not yet proven, that Peter Bunnell, progenitor of the many of the Kentucky Bunnells living today, was the brother of Jonathan Bonnell, below.

William Bonnell – (Bettie Ganno?)
 Jonathan Bonnell – Rebecca Dean

Life Changes

Births, Marriages, Obituaries

Obituaries:

Donald Sage, dsage@usfamily.net or 13742 Marigold St. N.W., Apt 263, Andover, MN 55304-3770, sent the following obituary. Harold Bonnell is the brother of Donald's wife Joyce, and the father of Mark D. Bonnell, a new subscriber.

Former Anoka resident Harold Bonnell has died at the age of 90.

Harold Bonnell in the 1970s.

Bonnell was very active in the community before he moved to Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1993, serving on a long list of boards and commissions both in Anoka and the Twin Cities. Bonnell died April 2 from complications related to Alzheimer's disease.

"He was a first class guy from a first class family," said Bob (Robert B.) Johnson, one of Bonnell's oldest and best friends.

Bonnell was the son of the late Leola P. and Carl E. Bonnell, former Anoka mayor (1953-1960) and business owner. Carl Bonnell also became a well-known folk artist later in life.

He followed his father's lead and lived a life that was full of civic and community involvement.

Bonnell was a charter 20-year member and served as chairman of the Anoka Housing and Redevelopment Authority; on the boards of the State Bank of Anoka, the Harlan Thurston Foundation and the Correctional Service of Minnesota. He was also the secretary-treasurer of the Minneapolis Athletic Club.

He also served for many years as the treasurer at Zion Lutheran Church, Anoka, where he was instrumental in fund-raising and acquiring the church's pipe organ, said son Mark Bonnell.

The Bonnell family moved to Anoka in 1925, where Carl Bonnell operated Bonnell Family Grocery.

Bonnell graduated from Anoka High School in 1939, where he was the school president and captain of the football team. He went on to Carleton College, Northfield, where his education was interrupted by World War II. He served as a technical sergeant in the Army Air Corps in Burma.

Following the war he finished his Bachelor of Arts degree at Carleton and went on to earn a master's in business administration degree at Harvard University and became a certified public accountant.

Johnson and Bonnell met in seventh grade, were classmates and played on the varsity basketball team together in the late 1930s. They remained close throughout their lives, part of a tight knit group that for decades made sure they got together once a year to catch up.

"He was very wise and worked very hard," said Johnson, Anoka's city engineer for 30 years.

Johnson's wife Lenore called Bonnell one of the most intelligent and kind men she knew.

Johnson recalls while he, Bonnell and other friends were raising young families they would gather every year on a Monday night to watch the championship Final Four basketball game.

In later years they didn't see each other often, but occasionally talked on the phone and exchanged Christmas greetings.

Accomplished and generous.

After running his father's grocery store in 1951, Bonnell joined the accounting firm Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co., becoming a partner in the Minneapolis office in 1960 where he was in charge of the Cargill, Green Giant and Control Data audits.

On his retirement from the company in 1980, he was called one of the firm's "technical giants" and was acknowledged as one of the nation's leading grain experts.

In 1980 he was appointed by the United States Department of Agriculture to a three-person arbitration board that settled losses incurred by the grain industry as a result of the embargo of grain exports to the Soviet Union following its invasion of Afghanistan.

“Harold did a lot to support Anoka,” said Steve Schmidt. “He was widely known and respected.”

Bonnell served on the board of directors of Anoka State Bank while Schmidt was president and chairman of the board.

“Harold Bonnell was a mover and a shaker way beyond Anoka,” Schmidt said.

According to Schmidt, for many years Bonnell handled the finances and taxes for the Harlan Thurston Foundation, pro bono.

Son Mark Bonnell remembers his father as a typical example of the greatest generation – a hardworking family man.

He was a kind man, said Mark, very involved in the Boy Scouts, loved the outdoors and was an Eagle Scout himself.

Bonnell was also a Boy Scout merit badge counselor.

“Dozens of Boy Scouts came through our house to earn their citizenship badges,” recalled Mark. “He was very strict and they really earned them.”

Bonnell was also known as a very giving man.

“One of his most obvious and admirable character traits which was his generosity – to family and friends and to his churches, schools and many charitable organizations,” said Mark.

Many years ago he established the Bonnell Family Endowment Scholarship at St. Olaf College, Northfield, where three of his children attended school. Every year it provides financial aid to graduates of Anoka High School.

Back in 2007 the Bonnell family also donated a piece of property along the Rum River to the city of Anoka for use as a sanctuary as well as a tribute to Carl Bonnell.

Bonnell is survived by his wife Rebecca, four children along several grandchildren and one great-granddaughter and one sister. He was preceded in death by his parents, sister and first wife Janet (Carlson) Bonnell.

A memorial service in Bonnell’s honor is planned 2 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 17 at the University Lutheran Church of Hope, 601 13th Ave. S.E. in Minneapolis.

While researching a correspondent's lineage I ran across the following obituary which was published in Alamogordo Daily News from April 1 to April 5, 2010. Lou Ruf, luf@aol.com or 1500 23rd St, Parkersburg, WV 26101, was looking for marriage records or some proof that James Bishop was married to Susannah Bunnell (dau of Abraham & Jane Bunnell). He knew that Bill Austin's book has exact dates which listed as a source, Homer Baldwin. Further research on Lou's part disclosed that Homer Baldwin died in 1969 in Greensburg PA. In a 1930 Bishop/Bunnell article in the Linesville Herald, Linesville, PA, Homer had very exact dates. Lou was kind enough to send me a photocopy of that clipping. I'm going to include a little extra info from the clipping as I think it's interesting reading. From the Linesville [PA] Herald, 11 April 1930:

LOCAL GENEALOGY [sic]
By Homer Baldwin
Bishop Family Bible Records

Moses Bishop, born in England, married Katherine Keats, born in England. They came to America about 1760, and settled in Essex Co. N. J.

They had one son James, born Dec. 28, 1762. When James was a small child his mother, Katherine Keats Bishop, returned to England on a visit. On the return trip in a violent storm the ship was lost at sea and all on board perished.

James Bishop, son of Moses and Katherine Keats Bishop, born Dec. 28, 1762, died May 8, 1848, married Aug. 31, 1783.

Susannah Bunnell, born Feb. 15, 1765, died Apr. 24, 1836. Both born at Connecticut farms, Essex Co., N. J.

Lou was looking for proof that James Bishop was married to Susannah Bunnell (dau of Abraham & Jane Bunnell) for a DAR application for his sister-in-law. He later wrote that: "I finally got the DAR papers approved for my sister-in-law. Also for SAR. The History of Crawford County, PA mentioned the family. It was published about 1885 when some of the Bishop family members were still alive."

Research Findings

From Commemorative Biographical Encyclopedia of The Juniata Valley, comprising the Counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata, and Perry, Pennsylvania, J. M. Runk & Co, Chambersburg, PA., Publisher, 1897; page 644:

"Mr. W. C. Bunnell, son-in-law of Mr. [James M.] Brown, is a son of Usnal [sic] and Harriet (McClure) Bunnell, of Crawford county, Pa. He married Sarah Jane Brown, November 11, 1868. They have had five children: James Brown; Harriet Elizabeth, wife of Dr. W. H. Kohler, of Milroy, Mifflin county, one child; Edna Della; Walter Irwin; and Fanny Cyrus.

Mr. Bunnell resided with his family on a farm near Siglerville, Mifflin county, until the spring of 1892. They then removed to Milroy, where they still reside."

[Ed. Note: W. C is William Cyrus, CB331681. The database shows his father's name as Uzual; the 1840 census shows it as Uzal; one of W.C.'s grandsons was named Uzual. It was a most unuzual name in all.]

Taylor (Bunnell) Amen, theamens09@att.net, wrote with some information, gradually increasing it over time, that started me searching to help her in her ancestral quest.

"My fathers name is Frank Bunnell...he was born in NJ and his fathers name was George William Bunnell and was married to Lila Louise Bunnell.

My dad was born in NJ and Quigley are great grandparents. My dad grew up in Anaheim. His dad, my grandfather was a police officer in Garden Grove as well as when they previously lived in NJ.

My grandfather George William Bunnell has the date of his death, which was in May of 1982 or 83? I also saw [in the data base] the last name Lurker which are my great grandparents

[After I prompted her to look at one family in the database, Lila Louise Quigley, 031299] I am at a loss for words,,Quigley is from our side!!! ... Quigley are great grandparents."

With the grandfather's name and the other grandparental surnames, Quigley and Lurker, I started my search in the database which provided the following possibilities:

Number 370735
 Name GEORGE WILLIAM BUNNELL
 Date of Birth Year: 1924 Month: 12 Day: 07
 Place of Birth UNION TWP NJ Union County
 Date of Death Year: 1988 Month: 05 Day: 29

And in response to Taylor's mention to Lila Louise, I found this in the database:

Marriage

Number	031299	Maiden Name	LILA LOUISE QUIGLEY

		Place of Marriage
		Date of Death	Year: 1986 Month: 02 Day: 25

Just from the notes for George W., we can see that the Lurker name is the result of a divorce between George W.'s parents. However, it also appears that George W. became engaged at the age of 22 years and one month to Sonya Aldrich. So, where did Lila Quigley enter into the family?
 More research using Ancestry.com resulted in less than a clear picture.

Sonya M. Aldrich

1992/1998:US Public Records Index,Vol. I; Lila L. Bunnell, Maud, TX [note: George's last residence was Maud, TX}

{confusion factor: 1940, 1942, 1944 a Mrs. Lila L. Bunnell lived in Binghamton, NY}

It appears that Lila Quigley, born in PA, lived in Orange Co., CA 1960-1986 when she died there. She was living with George W. Bunnell at least 1960-1968. However there is also a Lila L. Bunnell who was living in Maud, TX at least in 1992 and 1998, long after the death of the other Lila. So they can't be the same person. A George W. Bunnell died in Maud TX, according to the Social Security Death Index. Is that the same George who was in Orange County 1960-68? Did George and Sonya actually marry, or were they only engaged? It's beginning to sound like a TV soap.

I have provided all of this information and questions to Taylor but she has not replied. I believe her father is:

Number	037958
Name	FRANK W BUNNELL
Date of Birth	Year: 1952 Month: 02 Day: 18
Place of Birth

Marriage

Spouse #	1
Maiden Name	TAMARA M KLUGE
Date of Birth	Year: 1957 Month: 08 Day: 19
Place of Birth
Date of Marriage	Year: 1981 Month: 09 Day: 25
Church of Marriage
Place of Marriage	CA Orange County

The birth date is about right and they end up in Shelby County, TN which is where Taylor is living. I am waiting confirmation from her.

I invite responses to the Lila Quigley puzzle.

In my search for Taylor's grandfather, George W. Bunnell, I researched many people with that name, recognizing that often only a first and last name are used in documents and newspaper articles. As a result I learned much about four other George Bunnells: starting with info that was in the database:

Take Buns From In Front Of East Washington Street Business Place

Bud Hamilton, Alex Bunnell, "Colonel" Hamilton and George Bunnell engaged in a "battle of buns" last night in East Washington street but it cost them a trip to a city jail cell, because the buns did not belong to them. Instead the buns belonged to an East Washington street store where they had been left in front of the building.

After having pelted each other with the buns some of them were taken to one of the defendant's home.

When the crown was rounded up by police, the officers had four prisoners and five dozen of buns.

They were being held pending charges which may be placed against them by the concern to which the buns were delivered.

In the following one, we did not know the wife's name and it isn't mentioned in his obituary though, we learn that instead of the one son cited in the database, this George had 2 sons and 2 daughters. The other articles do provide us his wife's name and other information for the database. Additionally, Mary S. Bunnell is in the database, 037891, and that entry can now be taken out.

(1) E-bay, once again has provided a mystery for us. The following photo was for sale and provided only clues as to who is pictured here. The back side of the photo reads:

“Playing Sandpile with Gold

Washington, D. C., You’ve often done this at the beach with sand, but this isn’t sand that F. P. Bonnelli is allowing to trickle through his fingers, but gold – the stuff that makes the world go around. It is the product of the gold mine that is being operated across the Potomac River from the National Capital, in Virginia.

I have searched through Ancestry.com and the database, but cannot pinpoint who this gentleman might be. Can anyone provide any clues?

(2) Gary Bonnelli, lgbonnelli@comcast.net or 3715 Fieldstone Avenue, # 606, Naples, FL 34109, has just started the never-ending-quest for his ancestry. He has hit his first brick wall while looking for his Bonnelli great grandparents. I searched through Ancestry.com, California on-line records and Claude’s database with no helpful results. Here is what we do know.

His grandfather was John R (or P) Bonnelli from Santa Clara County California - he was a successful sculptor. John’s wife was Rowena Wescott of Santa Barbara County California; they married about 1923 and were divorced before WWII, possibly as early as 1927. She was a professor of art at UCLA and is the daughter of Winfield W. and Catherine F. Westcott. John died in 1957; Rowena was born about 1894 and died in 1974.

I have updated the database with much material that Gary provided. John R (or P) Bonnelli is 041512. If you can help Gary out, please contact him and me.

(3) Jackie (Johnson) Bauer, rbauer2@neo.rr.com, wrote that while looking through her grandmother's bible she found a faded newspaper clipping about her grandmother Alice Barthalow marrying Harry William Bonnell at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonnell, Harry's parents in Cambridge, Ohio. No year is with the clipping but the article mentions a Thursday in September. She also has a later marriage license of her grandmother and grandfather for May 10, 1917. The document lists her grandmother as a widow previously married, named Alice Bonnell. She is looking for the circumstances of the marriage and death of Harry William Bonnell. Her grandmother NEVER spoke of the first marriage and only married her grandfather (?) two months before her father's birth. She adds that: "Perhaps I am not a Johnson at all but a member of the Bonnell family."

I was able to find out a few facts, though not the basic question of when Harry William Bonnell died.

Alice was born in 1893, daughter of George and Samantha (Stotler) Barthalow.

Harry William Bonnell, age 19, married Alice Barthalow, age 18, 14 Sep 1911, in Guernsey, Ohio.

He was born in Cambridge, OH the son of Walter L. and Belle (Paden) Bonnell.

Denver Johnson, age 23, married Alice Bonnell, age 24, 10 May 1917, in Guernsey Co., Ohio.

He was the son of Alonzo and Alice (Gow) Johnson.

I cannot find Harry and Alice in the 1920 census.

I can't find where or when Harry died or was buried.

This adds the spouse of Harry to the database. Harry is 342156 in the Database. Harry's lineage is: William<sup>1</sup>, Nathaniel<sup>2</sup>, Isaac<sup>3</sup>, Abraham<sup>4</sup>, Isaac<sup>5</sup>, Daniel<sup>6</sup>, Daniel<sup>7</sup>, Walter<sup>8</sup>, Harry<sup>9</sup>. If you have any info on William's death or any other info about him, please let me know and I'll provide it to Jackie.

This is from the Thomas Bonnell material provided by John Grady. The original source is History of Bartholomew County, Indiana: From the Earliest Time to the Present, published by Brant & Fuller, 1888, page 770.

Thomas Bonnell. – Prominent among the old and highly esteemed citizens of Bartholomew County, is Thomas Bonnell, who was born in Mercer County, Ky., on the 27th day of April, 1804. His parents were Jonathan and Rebecca (Dean) Bonnell, natives of Virginia, and early residents of Kentucky, where they resided for a period of about twenty-five years. September, 1820, they immigrated to Indiana, and the year following settled in Bartholomew County, on land which Mr. Bonnell had previously purchased from the Government, and upon which he had erected a small pioneer cabin soon after his arrival in the new country. Here for a number of years the family encountered all the hardships and privations of pioneer life, and amid the rugged scenes of toil, the early years of Thomas were passed. In 1846, Jonathan Bonnell emigrated to Missouri, in which State his death subsequently occurred. Thomas Bonnell is the fourth in a family of eight children and for a period of sixty-eight years has been an honored resident of the county and State of his adoption. Owing to the absence of school facilities, his early educational advantages were very limited, but possessed of an enquiring mind, and being a close observer, he succeeded in acquiring a practical knowledge of business affairs, and is well informed upon all general subjects. He has borne his share in the growth and development of the country, and has lived to see Bartholomew County transformed from an almost unbroken wilderness, into one of the most highly cultivated and enlightened portions of Indiana. His life's work has been farming, and as an agriculturist he has met with well earned success, being now in the enjoyment of a comfortable competence, which only those who battled with life for over three-quarters of a century know how to appreciate. He is now in his eighty-fourth year, active and vigorous for one of his age, and is perhaps, the only citizen of the county living who was here as early as 1820. He has been twice married, the first time on the 18th of November, 1825, to Eliza McConnell, of Ohio, who bore him eight children, five sons and three daughters, the daughters still living. Mrs. Bonnell died October 23, 1845, and subsequently Mr. Bonnell married Mrs. Elizabeth (Gaines) Treadway, a union blessed with two children.

[Ed. Note: Thomas is 005287 in the database. This article allowed me to correct the parentage of two children in the database, being the two children of Elizabeth. Thomas is part of the Kentucky clan, but his parents relocated before many of the other members did.]

From History of Madison County Iowa and Its People, Volume II, . J. Clarke Publishing Co, Chicago, 1915, page 98:

JOHN C. BUNNELL,

Among the prosperous agriculturists of Penn township is numbered John C. Bunnell, who is a native of Illinois, born in Stark county, October 23, 1872. His parents, Robert E. and Matilda (Jackson) Bunnell, were born in Wyoming county, Pennsylvania. The rather removed to Stark county, Illinois, in 1853 and there purchased land, which he operated until 1890, when he removed to Nebraska. After farming there for eight years he came to Madison county, Iowa, where he rented land for a number of years. He then went to Dallas county, where he purchased land, which he is still operating at the age of seventy-six years. His wife, who is also living, is sixty-eight years old.

John C. Bunnell was reared and attended school in Illinois and Nebraska and remained with his parents until 1902. In the meantime he had farmed with his father for a number of years and was well qualified to operate land independently. In that year he was married and rented a farm in Jefferson township, this county. Three years later he purchased eighty acres on section 2, Penn township, and has since carried on general farming there, meeting with well deserved success.

In March 1902, Mr. Bunnell was united in marriage to Miss Edith Renshaw, a daughter of Sylvester and Sarah (Hazen) Renshaw, a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this work. Mrs. Bunnell is a native of this county and her natal day was September 7, 1875. By her marriage she has become the mother of two children: Howard, a lad of twelve years; and Helen G., aged ten.

Mr. Bunnell supports the candidates and policies of the republican party, and his religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Methodist Episcopal church. He is energetic and capable and his personal characteristics are such as win him many warm friends.

William Austin's Comments

For the information of the more recent researchers, William Austin is the originator of the Bunnell/Bonnell Newsletter, publishing the first issue January 1st, 1987. He is also the author of The Bunnell/Bonnell Family in America, Volumes I and II. Bill provided the following comments relative to our last issue:

As you know, my children are descended from William Bunnell. I am very interested in any progress you can make on his ancestry in England. It concerns me that so much has been printed connecting him to the Huguenot Thomas Bonnell through Thomas' son Benjamin. People who are just beginning their research are led astray and tend to add to the problem by repeating it. It is like a virus.

On page 3 of the Newsletter you noted that you wrote to Amber Douglas that the connection to Thomas Bonnell is "really unproven". I believe that the evidence is strong enough to state that Mrs. Valentine's assertion that William's father was Benjamin Bonnell is FALSE. First, there is no evidence of any kind that indicates where in England William came from or who his parents were. Looked at from the other end, Benjamin Bonnell's last appearance in the records was at age 18.

We have no indication that he married or had children, or even that he survived to age 19. Besides, he was born in 1589, which would have made him about 11 years old when he fathered William.

In November 1992 I prepared and sent to Claude a 38-page study on the possible ancestry of William Bunnell, listing every contemporary reference to him and all of the published statements about his supposed ancestry that I could find. It covered the waterfront as it was available to me at that time. Since then I have not seen a single reference which added anything to that study. I think I sent you a copy of it, but I'm not sure. If not, and if you want one, let me know and I will send it. Most of the material in it is included in the early Newsletters, but this report focused it all.

Your efforts to gather more data from English records is the right way to go, I'm a great believer in serendipity, and sooner or later something will turn up. As I stated in my book, my own opinion is that the grouping of Bunnell and Bonnell families in the area surrounding the town of Bonehill in Staffordshire is the likeliest source to concentrate on. I have no other evidence to support that opinion.

Regarding the uncle-niece marriage in Jerry Hines' lineage, has Jerry or anyone found any real evidence that the wife of James Bonnell #290029 was Sarah Broadwell? The last I knew several people had suggested Broadwell as Sarah's maiden name, but Brownell was another suggestion. Hannah (Bonnell) Broadwell was the oldest of seven children, and her brother James was the youngest. It was physically possible for James to have married Hannah's daughter Sarah. But an uncle-niece marriage is so unusual that firm evidence would be welcome.

This letter has become much longer than I intended, but you see I still am interested in this family even after turning to other research. Now I must send a note to Gwen.

Best regards to you and the whole gang.

Bill

Corrections

Perhaps I should call this section Oooops! Anyway in the last issue on page 4, under Births, where we announced the birth of Syla Rennee Bonnell, we should have announced the birth of Syla Renee Bonnell. Grandpa Steve says that his misspelling has to do with aging.

Post Script

I recently bought a CD titled Western Massachusetts, 1636-1925, originally published in 1926. Turned out I already had a copy of it. It is a 4 volume set in fully searchable PDF format. Volumes 1 and 2 comprise a history of the area, totaling about 100 pages with an index of places. Volumes 3 and 4 contain biographies, comprising nearly 1000 pages with a 21 page index. If you'd like to buy the CD, let me know. The price is $8 plus postage. Give me a call (931-210-3732) if you want to be sure to be the first to reach me.

I spent at least 40 hours in the past two months researching and analyzing in response to two requests for information. After spending literally tens of hours on each one, and carrying on a continuous correspondence, I found that in many cases, information the correspondents already had but didn't share, could have reduced my research and analysis hours tremendously. I believe that most of us who have been doing this for some time usually provide maximum information when contacting others for their assistance. But for those new to the game, the importance of a small tidbit of data such as a marriage, divorce or birth date is lost. So I have learned that, and share with you for your consideration when responding to requests for information, before answering any question, ask the correspondent to provide ALL information he or she may have.

Well this issue is a couple of pages shorter than usual, but that will happen now and then. Until August, keep those letters and e-mails coming.
