Be Patient While Waiting for a Response in your continuing search for family history. Below are three Good reasons not to give up, get too sensitive or hurt with people who don't seem interested, put you off or don't answer your letters as quickly as you'd wish. Within a month, three completely different things have brought this to my attention.

1. I am happy to report that after ten years of fruitless research, just before Christmas, a 'cousin' Beth Bonnell Kleeb, (who I had written in 1994) sent me a photo of the first wife of Oliver Hartley Bonnell, Jennie Williams (1860 NY-1893 MT). We had never seen her photo and no one in the family had a picture of her. It was a very nice surprise.
2. At the same time I discovered a new 'cousin' tracing my mothers branch of the family. She sent me a death record of our 'Bruce' immigrant for 1890, which we had searched for unsuccessfully for eight years.
3. And, my very dear Aunt Margaret Guthrie Hunter, my Dad's youngest sister, passed away last December. She had to be the sweetest woman you could meet. She was our favorite on Dad's side of the family by a landslide. We will miss her, and I regret not seeing her more often. She was the last of my fathers' generation to pass on. She gave me the few clues I've had on my immigrant Grandfather Guthrie, as my father had passed before I started genealogy. I hated to 'hound' her with 'questions' as she got so frustrated not being able to answer. She said her father didn't talk much of his family. (My grandparents passed before I was born).

She was in her 80's and seemed a little stressed when I would ask over and over (you know how we are!) if there was anything that she could tell me to help me identify her fathers parents in England where he was born. I was of the opinion that she wished I would quit asking about the family history, though very polite. She sent me to a cousin of my fathers' I hadn't heard of, Thelma Stabence. Thelma's Grandmother and my grandmother were sisters. Lucky for me, she was the family historian on Dad's mothers side, and has given me much family history recorded no where else.

Later, I would find, Aunt Margaret was just very hard of hearing in her later years, but wouldn't tell her visitors. And she felt bad she couldn't help me. Sadly, after her death, I found that she was so glad that I was researching our family and recording it for other generations. She had named me in her will to receive enough money to buy a new computer to continue with my research. This 'gift' was a very big surprise to me when told after her funeral. Without the 'gift' she was still the sweetest.

ATTENTION; 1999 Newsletter Publishing Donation Due: # 12.00 due to insure uninterrupted subscription. Make all checks payable to Carole Bonnell – P O Box 4282 – Spanaway, WA 98387. Thanks to those of you whom have already PAID for 1999. Check your Mailing Label for '99 if paid for this year. Next Issue will be out May 25th

The Women - We couldn't be here without them: Beginning in this issue, I would like to dedicate at least two pages of each newsletter to the female line of Bunnell/Bonnell and the women the men married. It will help connect families and, to us women, are just as important as the male lines. So, please feel free to send things to be published. The obituaries we are receiving are wonderfully full of information – almost as though a genealogist wrote them! (maybe even a woman!) We start the year with a few new subscribers, losing a few, and a few that have called to say their renewals are in the mail.

1999 Subscriptions; If you have renewed the Newsletter, the date '99 will be on your Mailing Label on your envelope; if not; this will be your last issue. If you have paid, and it isn't on the label correctly, please write me immediately with the date, check # and amount sent for us to track it down. OOPS! I have erroneously deposited two checks without the names being written in the register. This is MY error completely, as I've been fighting the flu for three weeks and nursing my husband who's been sick four months. (If I haven't got enough excuses, we'll just blame it on the Holidays!)

Where is your name? I can't stress this enough. You MUST put your name on every piece of paper sent to the Newsletter. If it is separated from your envelope (and put your name, not just address on envelopes, please) we can't match it up. When submitting obits, or anything from a newspaper – please put the Name, City, State, Date and Page you got the information from for anyone who would like to check further. I do truly thank you for your input. I am receiving very nice little packages, but they are sorted into Obituary, Marriage, Direct Lines, etc., without a name, how can we thank you?

Postage Increase?; Not yet! We've been asked if the newsletter would cost more to mail. So far, it will remain the same for 1999, with no increase in yearly dues.

Important Addresses; Send to this paper @ PO Box 4282, Spanaway, WA 98387 AND:
Direct Lines; William Austin, PO Box 62, Laceyville, PA 18623-0062

Two Email Letter from Terri Carlson;
19 Dec. 1998

Just got a packet from the NCW historical Society. One entry I'll put here of Benjamin C. Bonnell and wife Caroline Van Auken Bonnell taken from 'A History of Central Washington, Including the Famous Wenatchee, Entiat, Chelan and the Columbia Valleys with an index and eighty Scenic – Historical Illustrations' Compiled and edited by Lindley M Hull 1929.

(NY entry must be in error as Benjamin listed his b. place as NJ on his daughter, Lillie May's b. certificate, Pioneer, Missauke, MI)

Mr & Mrs B C Bonnell, natives of New York (sic) and Pennsylvania respectively, came to Washington in 1887 and immediately settled near Brender Canyon about two miles above Cashmere (Eastern Washington state) where they homesteaded 160 acres. Mr Bonnell was a civil engineer, and did the early –day work in the way of irrigation ditch surveys, road work, and land surveys where the government had not yet completed its permanent work. Mr. Bonnell was an agreeable gentleman and of wide information. Mr Bonnell passed off the stage of action before a lively interest in the growth of the country, which to his clear-sighted mind, had a great future. He died in 1897 and Mrs. Bonnell passed away in 1905. Three children came with the couple to the Cashmere country: Isaac H, Elizabeth and May. Elizabeth married Mr Fred Potter and May became Mrs A F Estes. Mrs. Estes now lives (1929) at Dryden. Mr Estes, a pioneer in his own right, was one of the first victims of the "Flu" epidemic and passed away near the first of January 1919.

The packet also contained info on children of Benjamin C Bonnell: Isaac and sister, Elizabeth, that I didn't know. Isaac Bonnell b. 1863, PA d. Mar 4, 1930, MI and his wife Edith Clinton came out to WA in 1887, but returned to MI as their graves are in Grand Traverse County. They were witnesses at Elizabeth J's wedding to Alfred H. Potter in Ellensburg, WA Feb 20, 1889.

My Essex Co. film is in at LDS center, but they are closed for 2 wks. So will solve the mystery of Ben after the New Year. Claude (Bunnell) is sending me a packet to help sort this all out and I have told him everything I've told you. One of these days I'll get it straight how to send collective messages!

Terri Carlson

14 Jan. 1999 (also from Terri Carlson)

I have a pretty good line on the parents of Ben C. Bonnell thanks to Claudes' hints. We had Benjamin C Jr living in Pike Co., in 1860 with an Elizabeth Brown b. Canada age 45 and husband Henry S Brown b. Eng (forget his age at the moment) and then James Bonnell b. 1837 in NJ. My guess was she was the boys mother, remarried.

Then we knew Benjamin C Sr. was living in Elizabeth Town NJ for the 1840 census and had a wife and a son b. about 1837. But we knew he died in 1849 and was buried in the 1st Presbyterian Church in Eliz town. So, I said, 'Okay. There has to be a widow. hopefully named Elizabeth Bonnell, living in Elizabeth Town in 1850 with two boys age 13 and 10 or so.' Well, there they were. All the info correct. She 34, born in Canada, the boys 13 and 8 b. NJ, Ben Jr age a little off, but I have no proof at this point of his exact birth date.

So I've passed the info on to Claude and hope that he can give a decree on the line Ben belongs to. So fun to have found it out as I imagined. Will let you know when all is official.

ATTENTION: CORRECTION - Newsletter IX No. 3

23 Jan 1999 – Letter from William R Austin – PA

Claude Bunnell brought to my attention an error published in (Bunnell/Bonnell) Newsletter IX, No. 3 (published by Wm Austin) which should be corrected. On page 30, in the sixth paragraph, I referred to Elizabeth Bonnell, who joined the First Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth, NJ on 3 Dec. 1837 and was dismissed 3 Jan 1857.

I identified her as Caleb Bunnell's daughter Elizabeth, who was christened in this church on 4 June 1817. This must be incorrect, since Claude informs me that Caleb's daughter Elizabeth died in 1823 according to the New Jersey Journal dated 9 Sept 1823.

Claude Bunnell suggests two possibilities instead:

First, she may have been the Elizabeth CB320387, daughter of Elias CB310282 (CB = numbers in Claude Bunnells' data base of Bunnell/Bonnells) who was born @ 9 June 1807 and who, on 1 Dec 1837, presented a letter from the Presbyterian Church at Mount Freedom, Morris, Co, NJ, to the First Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth for membership. This date fits precisely.

Second, she could have been Elizabeth, wife of Benjamin C. Bonnell CB320816. He died 1 Aug 1849 and was buried in this churchyard. Before 1860 his widow married (second) Henry S Brown, and the 1860 census shows they were living in Blooming Grove Twp, Pike Co, PA. She could have joined in 1837 after she married her first husband and left in 1857 to marry her second. Claude is seeking further evidence. Sincerely, Bill – (William R Austin)

Also would they be content with the paper, plastic-film-laminated, covers which Heritage Books normally provides, or would they be interested in paying something additional for hard-cover volumes?”

Please contact William Austin personally with your request for or interest in, his book. He would like to get an idea how many people are interested before it is published. Please contact him as soon as possible if interested. I already told him to reserve me a copy. William R Austin – P O Box 62, Laceyville, PA 18623-0062 – phone (570) 869-2325

52. BUNNELL

As I glance through back issues (Bunnell newsletter), I see that others have tried to solve the mystery of the “Kentucky Bunnells”. Specifically, they have attempted to tie the Bunnells born in Kentucky between 1770 and 1890 together and then trace them to the preceding generation. Was anyone ever able to do this? I am a descendant of Peter Bunnell (b. 15 Jan 1784, later lived in Hart and Green Co, KY.) and have been trying for many years to trace his parents. I have little information and don’t know where to go next. John Gregory Bunnell, PSC 41 Box 1721, APO AE 09464-1721 email: bunnell@bunnell.dungeon.com.

I find him with his father, James E Bunnell in 1880 in Iowa and 1920 in Missouri but cannot prove where they were before 1880 and 1920. The son (My grandfather) should have been in Minnesota. I can only print what is sent and hope it will be appreciated or challenged by other readers. Some are proven before submission to the paper, some are not. Before using this as FACT, check with the compiler as to their sources. † Miss Kate Bonnell, daughter of Henry and Amelia Bonnell, was born near Griggsville, Pike Col, IL. Jan 13, 1859, and departed this life at the home of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Watson, in Barry, IL. Feb. 28, 1902. Her early life was spent with her parents, brothers and sisters in Griggsville, ILL., where her father was engaged in business for many years.

She graduated from the Griggsville High School in the summer of 1870 and in the same year began teaching school as a profession, filling with honor and credit to herself positions as primary teacher at Chambersburg, Meredosia and Barry, ILL. Also at Wichita, Kansas, and Salt Lake City, Utah. While teaching at Salt Lake City, the work being very heavy and the strain too much for her strength because of failing health, she resigned her position and returned to Illinois, spending some time with her sister at Astoria, -----(cannot read fold in paper)--- Barry, ILL., to make her home with her sister, Mrs Margaret Watson. Her experience and eminent fitness as a teacher in primary department work was fully known to the Barry public school board, and four years ago she accepted, at a good salary, a position as primary teacher in our schools. Which position she ably filled to the entire satisfaction of every school board since, as also the patrons of the school.

This sketch wouldn't be incomplete without saying that she was eminently qualified for this special work among the children. She loved the children and the children loved her. Her government of the children was by 'the sternness of love'. She was easily approached by the pupils, but her demeanor was such that familiarity with the children did not breed contempt. Otherwise they had the greatest respect for her. Her idea of a teacher's work was broader than some. She --- (ripped page)--- and the primary department of the Sunday School, literally, covered the casket and all the space around it. As the sun was sinking towards the western horizon, at the waning of the day, her body was laid to rest in our beautiful Park Lawn cemetery. In the resurrection morn may it have a more glorious awakening and rise to meet her Savior in all the brightness of His glory.

As co-worker and warm friends of Miss Bonnell, we seek to express heartfelt sense of loss over her untimely taking. We realize that one has left us whose sympathy was always open and unstinted in its expression, one who seemed always to see the good in human nature and strove to encourage its highest fulfillment.

We deplore the loss of one upon whose taste and judgment many have depended with entire confidence. We recognize in our departed friend the careful and conscientious measuring towards the highest standards both in her great success as teacher and in that she did her work as well.

We regret the departure of a friend whose influence was always good: Mabel Hake, Ella Thompson, Roberta S Amrine, I Lillian Yancy, Nettie Shewe, Theodore C Moore, Melvin r. Laird, Simeon Smith. (more writing hard to read) She leaves to mourn her loss three brothers; Dr. W W. Bonnell of Astoria (?), Ill; Rev. J G Bonnell of Epworth, IL., and Albert Bonnell of Chicago, IL.—and three sisters –Mrs. Helen Smith of Barry, IL, Mrs Belle Farwell, of Astoria, IL. who was her twin sister and Mrs. Margaret Watson, of Barry, IL. – and many other relatives and friends.

† Rev. Thomas Bonnell – Taberville Il. Newspapaers

Rev. Thomas Bonnell, who died Monday, May 3, 1897, 3 p.m. was born in Batavia, Clermont County, OH. June 29, 1838. In January, 1850, while a boy, he united with the church. In November the same year he moved with his parents to Grieggsville, ILL., where he attended school and fitted himself for the ministry. In 1859, at the age of 21 years, he was admitted to the Illinois conference of the Methodist church at Payson Ill., and in 1860-61 he filled appointments on the Perry circuit. In 1862 he was appointed to Middleton, and in 1863 to Mt Sterling; was stationed at Lynnville during the years of 1864-5 (1864-5). Owing to throat trouble he was superannuated from 1866 to 1875; partially resumed work as a supernumerary from 1876 to 1879. And his health growing better, he was appointed to Warrensburg in 1880, but from 1881-9 he again became a surpernumary and in 1890, at his own request was finally superannuated. He loved the ministry and the Lord's work and although unable to remain actively in harness he filled various appointments from his elder, preaching in this country on the Mt. Auburn and Rosemond circuits, and filling almost a year's appointment at Litchfield. Such is his church history. He was always a willing and zealous servant of the Lord and during his residence in Taylorville was a valuable worker in the Methodist, which organization will sadly miss his ripe experience and Christian council.

September 25, 1862 he was married near Perry, IL., to Miss Katherine Hinman, daughter of one of the most prominent and loved pioneers of Pike County. To this union six children were born. Mary Alice is buried in Hinman chapel, Pike county, and Henry Wilber and Bertie sleep peacefully on Buckeye prairie. The surviving children are Charles H., who lives on the home place in Rosemond township, and Clarence and Frances, who are yet at home. These three, with their mother, are left to mourn, surrounded by the warm sympathy of scores of friends, their irreparable loss.

In 1870 Mr Bonnell moved with his family to Rosemond township where he resided on his farm almost continuously until the fall of 1892, when he moved to Taylorville, where he died. Since 1870, he has been identified with the best life of this country, and the highest panegyric we can pay him is to say that he will continue to live in the hearts esteem of hundreds of our people who knew him and loved him. Generous to a fault with his family and friends. Pure as gold in his character and true to himself and his God in every relation of life. He leaves as the highest and best legacy to his family and friends, who loved him, an upright life and an unsullied record as a man, Christian and citizen. The writer of this article knew him well and intimately, knew of his unselfish, sacrificing spirit; knew of his unbounded charity and benevolence, of his trust in mankind and of his ever hopeful, sanguine nature, and here drops a tear sacred to the memory of the Creator's noblest work – an honest man. Funeral services Methodist church, rev. W D Best. Interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

GEORGE H. BUNNELLE

George H Bunnelle was born December 23, 1837, at Xenia, Ohio, and remained in the city of his nativity until twenty-one years old. He had contemplated a collegiate course in study, but owing to business reverses suffered by his father he changed his plans and turned his attention to marble sculpture and engraving.

After working in Cincinnati, Chicago, and other towns until 1860, he came to West Liberty, Ohio, and started a business for himself. In 1861 he sold his business and came to Sidney merely to look over the business prospects of the town. Satisfied that the town presented a good field for enterprise he concluded to remain, and again engaged at his trade.

Two years later he married Miss Mary L., youngest daughter of Dr. Beemen. Being of a speculative turn he began dealing in sheep, and succeeded for a time, but went West at the request of his parents, who needed his advice in their old age.

After six years he returned to Sidney (OH) and resumed his old business speculations, opened an office and turned his attention to real estate, insurance and general speculation. We insert the following reference to him which appeared recently in a daily paper:--

“Mr Geo. H. Bunnelle, a real estate dealer, collector and money broker, has been of great service to a large number of people here, who have secured homes almost before they knew it. He has had a great deal of lands subdivided into lots, and sold them on the monthly plan system, 512 of them, during the past three years. Mr. Bunnelle, is an enthusiast in regard to Sidney, and thinks its era of prosperity has just begun to dawn.” *Thank you, Lolita Guthrie. ****

Unadilla Baptist Church – from; History of Unadilla Otsego Co, New York – by Shirley Boyce Goerlich Pg 293-4

“ Among the early settlers of Unadilla and vicinity were a number of Baptist families. And there were occasional visits to the community by Baptist clergymen who held services at the homes of communicants and later at the schoolhouse/” (note from the compiler: Goelich, this being generic, it is possible there were no records available in 1930 either. However, do read on. Subg.)

“ Among the itinerant preachers were; Silas Spaulding, William T. Boynton, Lewis Raymond, D.B. Crane, N. Wattles and others. But, no effort is recorded to establish a church and society until 1843, when Rev. Lewis Raymond of Cooperstown was invited to hold protracted meetings in the schoolhouse, and there were a number of converts.

At a meeting held Sept 16, 1843, a Baptist conference was organized and the following persons accepted as candidates for baptism; Marcia C Brown, Maria Church, Lydia Ann Olmstead, Abigail Bidwell, Wealthy Ann Porter, Maryette Wright,

Sarah Ann Steadman, Sherman Page, George R Porter, George Crandall, Elizabeth Porter, Minerva W. Ostrander, Miranda Clapp and Harriet Bunnell.

These candidates were baptised (baptized) on September 24, 1841 by Rev. Mr. Raymond. On October following the same clergyman baptised Jasper Ostrander, John Ostrander, Lawrence Ostrander and Julia Hogeboom, and on October 11 Margarette Davis, Amanda Thompson, Harriet Foote, Caleb Batterson and Clark Bidwell. An old record says of final baptismal services that it was held on the banks of the river, as quite likely were the others.

According to this genealogy, our John Bonnell, Sr. (1778-c1855) is descended from one or the other of the two Bonnell brothers; John, Jr.(1726-) or Daniel (1731-), as Anthony Bonnell's descent is known. Daniel Bonnell, 'the younger' was executed for crimes alleged to have been committed against the patriots during the Revolutionary War on 18 Oct 1784 ("Major Daniel Bonnell of the Georgia Militia" E

COMPUTERS, ETC.

If someone is looking to purchase a computer or printer, they are at an all-time low. They may get even cheaper as I speak! My computer, a year old laptop, is $1,000 less than when I purchased it. You can buy a full system PC now for less than a $1,000 depending on what you need. The printers are from $100 on up for color! I just bought a multi-pass machine (Multifunction) that scans photos or text, prints, copies, and faxes – in color. I just printed my grand-daughters' picture and it is a perfect duplicate of the original photo. It is perfect! And, it was cheaper than my black and white copy machine or colored printer! Keep your eyes out for some real bargains.

‘Females who Married or Born into the Bonnell/Bunnell Families

New Section – We will be having two pages each issue dedicated to the female line of Bonnell's and women who married the Bonnells, and their families. You are 'urged' to send in your 'female' ancestors who were either born Bonnell's or married Bonnell – all spellings. Hopefully it will help us connect through the women in the family

William Austin sent in a copy of the 'Bunnell Family History Oct 17, 1905' the Overfields and Bonnells in the original handwriting of Mrs. Overfield. Below is a sample. Wouldn't it be wonderful if all the 'handwriting' we have to interpret were so beautiful?!

We are pleased to become participants in the second edition of the Overfield Reunion of Aug. 19, 1905. The Overfield blood has been crossed so frequently during the past century with that of the Bunnell, we seem to belong to, or own each other! We certify this by the following list of Intermarriages which

JAMES M BRONSON & HANNAH ALMIRA HELMER

James M Bronson was the son of Stephen Bronson of Vermont, and one of the pioneers of Bloom township, was born in Onandaga Co, NY in 1809. He married Hannah Almira Helmer 4 April 1826, daughter of James (of Germany) and Catherine Helmer (of Holland). The wedding ceremony was performed by Squire Samuel Edwards, of Manlius, NY. Hannah A. Helmer was born in Montgomery Co., NY, April 12, 1806. She was a woman of small stature, but had courage. She was said to be a faithful wife in the wilderness of Wood, from 1840 until her husband d. in 1864.

In November of 1840 Hannah accompanied her husband and children to the site of Eagleville, where early in the spring of that year, he had purchased 160 acres of land. A tract of about one and one-half acres was cleared, some corn planted, and a log cabin constructed. Mr. Bronson then returned to New York for his wife and five children. The family traveled on a canal boat from Rochester to Buffalo, on steamer to Sandusky, and then on wagon to their new home, which they reached on November 17, 1840.

At this time in 1840, James Bronson had only $ 3.50 and a tract of 160 acres of wild land, but with it he possessed natural ability, physical strength and a desire to succeed. Soon he opened a school in Ora Baird's cabin, in Section 35, the only dwelling in the township that had two rooms.

In 1842, James had a herd of six milk cows, and with this Hannah established a dairy, selling butter at six cents a pound; she also established a little cheese factory, the product of which, for one season, was 300 pounds. The press used in this primitive factory was a rail, one end of which was fixed in the fence while the other was attached to a brass kettle filled with rock. In addition to the butter and cheese industries, was a hennery, where numerous eggs were produced daily, which were sold easily three cents a dozen.

Also, Ginseng root, was dug up, washed and dried by the children, worth eighteen cents a pound. The ordinary farm products to help out the income of the house. But, even with all these means at their disposal there were still privations and disappointments with which all American pioneers would have to cope. In 1843, the six cows starved to death. In 1844, the husband and two children were stricken with typhus fever and for six weeks, the self-sacrificing wife and mother, Hannah, attended the sick without thought of herself. When the clothing she brought from her old home in New York state, was worn to shreds, and there was no money to purchase new goods at Fostoria or Perrysburg, she dyed the blankets and made them into comfortable and well-fitting clothes for her children. When the baking soda was gone, she reduced corn-cobs to ashes, placed the ashes in a bowl of water, waited until precipitation took place, and then poured off the clear liquid to be used in place of soda in the baking of corn bread.

She was courageous, patient and endured with a happy demeanor which made her a woman with few equals in the settlement; one to be honored by the pioneers and to be adored by her family.

Her husband, James Bronson, had such success as a teacher; it put him in great demand. A number of winters he taught school in Bloom, giving his time, during the spring, summer and fall to chopping, clearing on the homestead and cultivating it. He had a phenomenal command of the Scripture Texts; however his interpretation was not always what the majority would have interpreted it.

He believed in the salvation of the human race, and for this reason refused the kind offer of his maternal grandfather to send him to Baptist school, if he would consent to become a Baptist preacher. After he had the village of Bloom surveyed, which was free to the use of all, he organized a society known as the 'Universalists' and urged the formation of other religious bodies. He opened a store, as described in the chapter on Bloom (in named book above) and was postmaster, teacher and preacher.

During the war for the Union he was a loyal, patriotic advocate in support of the old flag. In all respects Mr Bronson was an exemplary citizen, beloved and esteemed by all who knew him.

James & Hannah Bronson had eleven children, though three died infants and eight grew to adulthood. At this writing (1897) three have already died; Mary A. who married James Baird, of Charlotte, Mich., James D., and Charles O. Bronson. The five surviving children of this marriage of Wood County are Ellen E Bartow, of Milan, Ohio; Charlotte F Bonnell, of Campe Verde, Texas; Sarah C Evers, Bowling Green, OH; Angelia A McClellan, of Adrian, Mich.; and Horace W Bronson, of Hudson, Mich.

The mother of this family became a widow in 1864, when her husband passed away. Ten years later she married Joel Hale, of Fostoria. After his death in 1877, she passed her years visiting her children until she died 30 Oct 1893.
